Camp and Dance Along The Lewis & Clark Trail

The Dance Center & Campground sits on 27 acres of pine and fir forest at about 3300 feet elevation in a beautiful valley of the Bitterroot Mountains with Lolo Creek running through the property.

Ray and Afton Granger created the Dance Center in 1978 on the banks of Lolo Creek. They spent more than 40 years in the square and round dance activity in the area; Ray as a caller, cuer and dance teacher with Afton assisting. Ray also managed the campground while Afton managed the dance apparel shop that has carried her name for about 60 years.

Ray passed away in April 1998 and Afton in May 2014. leaving wonderful memories. Barry & Bobbie feel honored to continue the legacy of friendship, hospitality and dance in this beautiful setting.
